LEONHARD KLEIN-AWARD TO PROMOTE OPHTHALMIC SURGERY 2018

Most welcome are contributions on the pathomechanisms of ophthalmologic procedures, clinical surgical methods, as well as the effects of surgery on the regulatory mechanisms of the eye.

The award is endowed with

15.000 Euro

and can be conferred to an individual person as well as to a group of researchers. As an exception, it can be awarded to two individuals in equal shares. The prize sum must be spent for research in the field of ophthalmic surgery.

A Board of Trustees, which is appointed by the Executive Board of the „Deutsche Ophthalmologische Gesellschaft (DOG)“, decides on the bestowal of the award

Legal steps against the decision of the Board of Trustees are not possible.

The Board of Trustees is asking for proposals of appropriate candidates.
Individual applications are not accepted.

The works have to be submitted in English or German. Please send a pdf-file including the following documents:

Curriculum vitae, short abstract of your scientific work,
list of publications concerning the theme of the presented work,
selected publications
